

October 2013 - We held a Harvest Festival at school. The children sang lots of songs and read some poems. We brought in lots of food and this was donated to two local charities. The school choir also performed for the first time!

