Raising Money for the Rainforest

The children in classes 1, 2 and 7 learned about the Rainforest as part of their 'Amazing Earth' topic last half term. They were all shocked when they realised how many trees were being cut down every day. The children decided that they wanted to raise some money for the charity Rainforest Concern. This is an organisation that was established to protect threatened natural habitats and the biodiversity they contain, together with the indigenous people who still depend on them for survival. The children produced some excellent artwork as part of their project and they decided to set up a Rainforest Art Gallery. Their artwork was made into cards and bookmarks and sold to parents and carers. The children helped to set up the gallery and enjoyed taking the money! They raised a grand total of £134.51!
