

Book Week

MONDAY 3 OCTOBER TO FRIDAY 7 OCTOBER 2016

Next week is Book Week at Meadow Lane with various activities taking place. This year we are again thinking about the importance of stories and the value of sharing a book with a child, a friend or even reading a story on your own for pleasure. We will be talking about our favourite stories all week and reading together – it would be great if you could support this at home too with maybe an extra bedtime story or book sharing session during the week.

Dressing Up Day - To finish off our Book Week, on Friday 7th October the children (and staff) are invited to come to school dressed as a Storybook Character. This may be a character from their favourite book eg Horrid Henry or traditional storytale eg Little Red Riding Hood.

Bacon Butty and a Book – Also on Friday 7th October from 8.00 am to 8.50 am we will be holding a ‘Bacon Butty and a Book’ event (vegetarian option will be ‘Toast and a Book’) – all family members and children welcome. During the event there will be different activities to take part in, as well as a bacon butty or toast and drink for everybody taking part. This will include a quiz with a prize!

If you would like to take part in this event please complete the reply slip and return to school by Friday 30th September 2016. We need to know exact numbers to ensure we have sufficient food so please ensure you complete this if you want something to eat.

We look forward to seeing you for an enjoyable early morning!

Please see over for details of the Book Fair arrangements for each class

We also still need help from any parent who can come into school and help the children choosing and taking payments for the books – if you can help please call into the office.

The school receives commission (in books) from every sale and this enables us to choose new books from the fair to go in our library.

We hope that your child will enjoy Book Week – happy reading!
