

November 2012 - We are linked with the Kings School in Ghana. In November Mrs Bates , one of our governors, came into school to talk to us about the school and share some of the experiences of the children at the school with us.

