

January 2015 - To start the new topic 'Stories from other Cultures' classes 1, 2 and 7 had a visit from the storyteller Tamba Roy. The hall was turned into an African landscape and he told them some Anansi stories and used music and drama to help them come alive. The children now have a storytelling area in their classrooms and are practising being storytellers themselves!

